

Mini-Symposium

Modern Relevance of Ancient Indian Education Pedagogy

School of Indic Studies, Institute of Advanced Sciences, in collaboration with the Malco Arts Center

April 29, 2017, 2-6 PM,

at

Malco Arts Center,
North Attleboro, MA

Topics and Speakers

- ❖ Relevance of Educational Pedagogy with Special Reference to Vedic Education System –
Dr. Aparna Dhir, Assistant Professor, Institute of Advanced Sciences

- ❖ Characteristic and Relevance of Ancient Indian Educational System –
Dr. Raj Kumar, Assistant Professor, Institute of Advanced Sciences

- ❖ Vedic Mathematics: Is This Mathematics or Magic? –
Ms. Swati Dave, Advisor, Rubrix Education Foundation

- ❖ Education Inside Out: Advaita, Nonduality, & Science –
JerrySolfvin, Adjunct Professor, Center for Indic Studies, University of Massachusetts Dartmouth

- ❖ Music as a Tool of Education Pedagogy –
Dr. Pradeep Shukla, Learn Quest, Waltham, MA, & Suffolk University

- ❖ Relationship between Arts and Education –
Dr. Monie Malhotra, Malco Arts Center, N. Attleboro, MA

- ❖ Need and Opportunities for an Efficient and Useful Global Education in Modern Times –
Bal Ram Singh, Professor, Institute of Advanced Sciences